

In the event of a hurricane on the island of Aruba, The Westin Aruba Resort will replace the balance of a guest's vacation for the duration of the reservation. This guarantee applies to room and applicable taxes.

The stipulations that apply are as follows:

- Replacement vacation must be taken at The Westin Aruba Resort within one calendar year.
- Reservations for comparable accommodations will be made on a space available basis.
- Black out dates applies as determined in our sole discretion.
- Any commission owed to travel agents will be paid on the stay interrupted by the hurricane.
- Other expenses including but not limited to airfare, food and beverage, or catered services are not included or covered by this guarantee.
- In-house guests will not be penalized for an early departure in the event of a hurricane.
- Any unused portion of a deposit for in-house guests will be refunded in the event of a hurricane.
- The guarantee offered by Starwood Hotels and Resorts is subject to change at the discretion of the operator at any time without notice.
- Guests holding confirmed and full deposited reservations and are within the non-refundable window that are unable to travel to the resort due to a hurricane closing of Aruba's Queen Beatrix airport or The Westin Aruba Resort will be given the option for a full refund or a one room category upgrade on their next visit to The Westin Aruba Resort within one calendar year.
- The island of Aruba must actually be placed under a Hurricane Watch or Hurricane Warning by the National Hurricane Center for the Hurricane Guarantee Policy to be in effect.

A hurricane is defined/ validated by the national hurricane center only. Typically a tropical cyclone in which the maximum sustained surface wind is 74 mph to 64 knots or greater.