

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DON'T DO IT WITHOUT ME GETS INTERNATIONAL RECOGNITION

Nassau, N.P. 4th March, 2010 - It's an expression that has taken the nations by storm; "Lord, whatever You're doing in this season; please don't do it without me." The statement coined by the Senior Pastor of Mount Tabor Full Gospel Baptist Church Bishop Neil C. Ellis is a result a unique encounter that he had with God.

As a result of the mandate given to Bishop Ellis, a team of writers from Mount Tabor's Praise and Worship Ministry were inspired to write the song "Don't Do It Without Me" featured on their debut Cd Wave of Glory, and released by Kingdom Glory Records. Recently, this same song was nominated for a Gospel Music Channel (GMC) Dove Award for Traditional Gospel Recorded Song of the Year. Other songs nominated in this category include: "Always Remember" by Men of Standard & Andrae Crouch; "How I Got Over"; by Vickie Winans; "Justified" by Smokie Norful, and "Oh Happy Day" by Queen Latifah & Edwin Hawkins.

Bishop Ellis and the Mount Tabor Praise and Worship Ministry are the first Bahamians to be recognized for their work in gospel music at this level. The song 'recently hit number 24 on Billboards gospel lists and features the lead vocals of the international presiding bishop of the Full Gospel Baptist Church Fellowship International Bishop Paul S. Morton.

The Dove Awards, Christian music's most prestigious awards, are the "Grammys" of the gospel music industry. The 41st Dove awards show which recognizes the best and brightest in Christian and Gospel music takes place April 21, 2010 in Nashville, TN, airing live on the Gospel Music Channel (GMC).

An official announcement will be made on Tuesday, 9th March at 9:30 a.m. at the historic British Colonial Hilton, downtown Nassau.

###